

Share! Watch new City Hall This Week at <https://youtu.be/RTUO4DSHr3Y>

New City Hall This Week Begins March 11

Watch These Stories and More On Demand Now

Police Department Releases Crime Report

The Durham Police Department's 2015 Annual Crime Report shows that while overall crime dropped by 1 percent last year, there was an 18 percent increase in violent crime.

City Council Approves New Police Headquarters Design

The City Council has chosen a design for the Police Department's new headquarters. Construction on the new building is expected to begin by this winter.

GoDurham to Get New and Replacement Buses

GoDurham will be getting up to 27 new and replacement clean diesel buses over the next five years. The funding will come from two federal grants and one-half cent sales tax revenue.

Residents Urged to Fix Water Leaks

The Water Management Department is encouraging residents to fix water-wasting leaks during Fix-a-Leak Week. Water efficiency and leak detection clinics will be held this month at two home improvement stores.

About City Hall This Week

City Hall This Week, a news program dedicated to informing residents about what's going on inside Durham's City Hall, airs daily at 9 a.m., 12:30 p.m., and 8 p.m. on Durham Television Network (Time Warner Cable channel 8 and AT&T U-verse channel 99) and on YouTube. For more information, call (919) 560-4123, like on Facebook, and follow on Twitter and Instagram.